Meetings

- Order of raised hands

The screenshot shows a Microsoft Teams meeting titled "Uber Laben Meeting". In the top left, there's a video feed of two participants: Danielle Booker and Ray Tanaka. To their right are three smaller video feeds: Charlotte de Crum, Cassandra Dunn, and Darren Mouton. The main video feed on the right shows a woman smiling. The top bar includes buttons for "Stop presenting", "Info", "People", "Chat", "React", "More", "Mic", "Camera", "Share", and "Leave". On the right side, a "Participants" panel lists the current meeting members: Danielle Mandera (Organizer), Cassandra Dunn, Charlotte de Crum, Danielle Booker, and Darren Mouton. Below the meeting title, a presentation slide is visible with the text:

Our products, services, communications, and people are truly what shape and define what it means to be Van Arsdel. We aspire to be a brand that is truly authentic, inspiring, and relevant. That means earning people's trust and creating fans that will advocate on our behalf. It means delivering products that not only drive record year-over-year growth, but top consumer preference and recommended lists as well. Every single one of you plays an important role in doing that.
